

The 2017 Gordon Cullingham Research & Publication Grant

Heritage Ottawa invites applications for the Gordon Cullingham Research and Publication Grant named in honour of the late Gordon Cullingham, journalist, broadcaster, editor and heritage activist.

Guidelines

The grant program was created in 2008 and supports work on all aspects of the preservation of Ottawa's built heritage, such as its architectural history, biography, material and technological history, heritage conservation, cultural landscape and heritage planning. Grants can be awarded to assist research on an appropriate topic or to contribute to the publication of a book or article.

Financial Award

The yearly maximum individual grant will not exceed $1,000 for research and $2,000 towards the cost of publication. A three-person jury will review the applications and will make an appropriate recommendation to the Heritage Ottawa Board of Directors. If no application is deemed worthy of support in a given year, no grant will be awarded.

Submissions & Deadline

Three copies (an original and two photocopies) of each application should be submitted to:

Heritage Ottawa
Cullingham Grant Committee
2 Daly Avenue
Ottawa, ON
K1N 6E2

Application forms can be downloaded from the Heritage Ottawa website at <https://heritageottawa.org> or obtained by calling 613-230-8841.

All applications must be received or postmarked no later than November 1, 2016.

Eligibility

Grants may be awarded to an individual, team or not-for-profit historical, heritage or community organization or to a publisher.

Applications

Research grant applications should include an 800 word research proposal stating the nature of the research being proposed, how it meets the guidelines noted above, a brief resumé of the applicant(s), a budget for the project, the names of two references who can attest to the applicant's qualifications, and an indication of the potential for publication arising out of the research.

Publication grant applications should also provide a detailed publishing budget and three draft copies of an article or one draft copy of a book or monograph being considered for publication.

Successful Applicants

The successful applicant will be notified of the award by January 31st, 2017.

Successful research grant applicants will agree to provide Heritage Ottawa with a copy of any written work resulting from the research funded by the Grant and will include the following credit line in any subsequent publication: "Research for this work was financed in part by a Gordon Cullingham Research and Publication Grant awarded by Heritage Ottawa."

Successful publication grant applicants will provide proper credit in the publication consisting of the Heritage Ottawa logo and the credit line: "This publication received financial support from a Gordon Cullingham Research and Publication Grant awarded by Heritage Ottawa." Successful publication grant applicants will also provide Heritage Ottawa with six copies of the final publication.
