

NATIONAL ARTS CENTRE
CENTRE NATIONAL DES ARTS

Canada is our stage. Le Canada en scène.

PUBLIC LECTURE

Architecture and National Identity: The Centennial Projects

The National Arts Centre was a centennial project, built to mark a major milestone in Canadian history. Please join us for a public lecture and major exhibition about our past and future.

What: Public Lecture and Guided Tour of “The Centennial Projects” exhibition

When: Wednesday, July 1st, 11:00 a.m.

Where: National Arts Centre, 4th Stage

Who: The NAC’s Rosemary Thompson will moderate a panel discussion including exhibition co-curators Colin Ripley and Marco Polo from Ryerson University, Donald Schmitt the principal architect of the NAC’s 2017 rejuvenation, and Heritage Architect Barry Padolsky.

RSVP to rsvp@nac-cna.ca by June 29th