A tour of the art collection of Dr. Firestone will be given this Tuesday July 29 from 2 until 4 p.m. The address is 375 Minto Place.

This tour is limited to 35 people so it would be appreciated if you could register with one of the following members. Should there be more than 35 requests to attend another tour will be arranged this summer.

Sunday evening call Stuart Lazear at 233-8270

Monday afternoon from 1 p.m. on call Sandy Atack at 592-1368

The sooperdooerrustic evening at the Phillips' was as much fun as the name implies. Over 100 people attended to watch the honourable Mike Cassidy defeat his sons at log rolling -to take on the undefeated Crook at nail-driving -to watch David and Ross compete for the Kentucky Fried Chicken eating contest of the world.

Thank you to the Phillips family for the warm hospitality and to Sandy Atack and Angela Dempsey for organizing the evening. Let's hope this exciting event can continue.

Martin Weil represented Heritage Ottawa at a meeting with the mayor and the owners of 187 Rideau to discuss the keeping of the structure. The prospects look good that the building will be saved. More information will follow as it develops.

The research group working in Sandy Hill under Mary Roaf has been very industrious this summer. In addition to the invaluable research they hope to have a slide show ready for the fall.

The Billings' Estate // Park Hill is now owned by the city. The city archivist is presently sorting the family papers which chronicle over a century of life in the area.

An exhibit has been set up in the foyer of city hall in remembrance of the late Dr. Charlotte Whitton, former mayor of Ottawa. It was organized by the city archivist Edwin Welch.
